

WILSON LANDS AND HURRIES TO PARIS; SOLDIERS GREET HIM ON ARRIVAL; EUROPE LIKELY TO YIELD ON LEAGUE

President Leaves for Capital Immediately After Debarkation.

CROWDS AWAIT HIM

IN SPLENDID HEALTH

By the Associated Press.
BREST, France, March 13.—President Wilson and the party which came with him from the United States left Brest for Paris at 10 o'clock to-night. The President and Mrs. Wilson disembarked from the George Washington at 9:45 o'clock. It was a moonlight night.

been hung out to welcome the return of the President his reception was entirely without ceremony. Those who went aboard the George Wash ington to extend their greetings were the French Ambassador to the United States and Mme. Jusserand, M. Leygues, the French Minister of Marine, and several other representative of the French Government, Major Gen. Eli A. Helmick and Brig.-Gen. William W. Harts, Col. House met the President at the dock.

President Wilson was in excellent

The Presidential party came ashore by an American tug, on board of which Mrs. Wilson was accompanied with bouquet by M. Leygues. There was little flurry of mist during the trip from the steamship, but this lasted only a short time. The party expected to arrive at the Invalides Station

To-day, the last of his voyage from the United States to Brest, President Wilson put in several hours mapping out his plans for his Peace Conference.

received a wireless despatch outlining the situation with regard to the phase of the negotiations which are to come up soon after his arrival in Paris.

As President Wilson, who throughout has obeyed the injunctions of Rear Admiral Grayson, his personal physician, to rest. The President has entirely recovered from the cold from which he had been suffering and at the fatigue consequent on his hurried trip to Washington, and is in vigorous condition and ready to take up the tasks awaiting him. These tasks will begin when he boards the train to Paris.

Immense crowds of American soldiers stationed at Brest endeavored to get a view of the President, and moonlight afforded an excellent chance, aided by extra lights which had been installed for the occasion. The soldiers awaited the President eagerly, and he raised his hat as

The President inspected the French Guard of Honor, consisting of seven companies of French marines dressed in their picturesque uniforms, who were standing at "present arms." The President smiled at the men amid and then complimented their com-meagre ceremonial before the President entrained for Paris.

GERMANY AWAITS
CALL FROM PAR

Joint Peace Meeting Expected Very Soon.
By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, March 11.—In official circles it is believed that the peace negotiations in which Germany will take part are very near at hand. It is feared that the instructions to German envoys to hold themselves in readiness to leave for Paris on March 17 or March 18, 1918. The negotiations with the German delegates were based upon a remark made by Gen. Nuda to the representative of Marshal Foch. Gen. Nuda, in recent negotiations with the German armistice commission, that the Allies probably would be able to begin preliminary negotiations with the Germans about March 29, and that the preliminary peace might be concluded by April 15.

By the Associated Press.

WHELAN, March 17.—The German delegate to the League Conference at the Count von Bernstorff mansion, Foreign Minister Dr. Eduard Loh, a majority Socialist and first President of the National Assembly, Max Warburg,

By Adolph Muller, Minister to Swiss